

MARKS FOR WEEK IN PIN LEAGUES HAVE SUBSTANCE

Bowling Scores Break No Records But Are Solid, Says Bob Schnelle — Dope is Worthless, Expert States.

BY R. A. SCHNELLE.
A much better condition is being established in the several bowling leagues throughout the city as the season advances because the players are rounding into form. No records were broken in any of the organizations during the week's play, either individually or collectively. Instead the scores turned in were of the substantial kind, which run the team totals well up in the 900 mark and frequently passed the four-figure mark.

But there were changes of positions in the percentage columns and in several instances these were of a volcanic order, some of these eruptions being so violent that clubs were relegated from the first to the second divisions. Yet in defeat the unfortunate clubs looked well as it was the rule that in reverses the verdict was reached by the margin of a few pins and a break on the other side of the fence would have spelled bacon instead of sinkers.

Elks Have Magnificent Face.

By far the most exciting race at present is in the Elks' league where three clubs, the Bills, Deer and Toasts, are tied for first place; the Hoofs and Stage are all in a knot for fourth position, one game behind the three leading clubs, and the sixth place in the race is occupied by the Charms, just one game behind the Hoofs and Stage. This means the first six clubs in the league are within two games of each other, a remarkable situation which is keeping interest in the organization at fever heat.

The Deer's whitewash of the Hoofs in three straight games, eliminated the latter, and the Bills winning the odd game from the Toasts, make present conditions possible. There are two teams who will not be tied at the close of this week as the Deer and Toasts meet on Friday evening and one or the other must submit to the inevitable. On the other hand the Bills meet the Hoofs, the latter bringing up the rear and showing the most inconsistent form of any team in the league, giving the Bills an advantage on the week's schedule. But dope is worthless in the bowling game and reverses usually come where they are least expected.

Ties on Wrong End of Column.

Quite different are conditions in the Antlers' league where six teams are tied for two positions, the Antlers, Bucks, Fawns and Tails being even for fifth place while the Elks and champion Prons equally share the cellar. But there is just as much fight in the lower end of the percentage column as there is among the leaders in some other organizations. There was very little change in the order of things with the exception that the Antlers were forced from a first division berth because of losing five games, three to the Hoofs and pair to the Prons in a postponed match.

The Bucktails continue in the lead although by a small margin as the Hairs have kept up to within one game of them, the result of the latter's disposition of the Antlers. The Bucktails have won two games of every series against their opponents with the exception of the Fawns, the latter dropping three straight, showing the state champions playing true to form. They got a bad scare from the Teeth, each winning a game and tying the final, which the Bucktails won on the rolloff. Although scheduled against the trailing Elks this week, this match promises unusual interest and the match will attract a lot of rooters. These two clubs have been rivals since the inception of the league and their matches have always been well fought. But why a meeting at this time should arouse so much interest cannot be explained as the Bucktails lead the league and are going fine, while the Elks have been battling under adverse circumstances for the past two seasons.

Two Runway League Races.

Two leagues, the Studebaker and C. A. club leagues have a processional race. This is rather unusual for the Studebaker league, who have established a reputation of keeping their teams together closer than any other organization in the city. But it is not surprising to note the Axles in the lead as they are recognized as the most live and peppery crew in the league. Capt. Witvor is cynicane personified ably supported by the wreck-

GAMES SATURDAY MUDDLED THINGS

Football Results Upset Dope in All Sections — "Big Nine" Race for Title Complicated by Three Contests.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20. — Saturday's upsets in the play of leading football teams in the middle west fulfilled the prediction of the games of the week preceding that all was not going well in the camps of the former leaders. From the defeat of Michigan by the Aggies down to minor games, reversals were the order of the day. A partial list of both university and college reversals follow:

Michigan Agricultural defeated Michigan.
Nebraska defeated Minnesota.
Purdue tied with Wisconsin.
Illinois humiliated Northwestern.
Rolla overwhelmed St. Louis.
Saturday's results did little but muddle the race for the "big nine" title. The elimination of Iowa by Chicago was expected. Illinois again showed itself a shifty if not powerful offensive eleven but was given little chance to prove a defensive strength. Wisconsin and Purdue failed to batter each other out of the conference race, the result being a rather distinct triumph for the Purdue team. Minnesota lost some of the prestige it has enjoyed by being defeated by an outside team. The week's play narrows the conference field to Wisconsin, Purdue, Minnesota, Illinois and Chicago. The schedule of these teams is so arranged that a definite championship may result as they all meet excepting Minnesota and Purdue.

LESSON FOR N. D. IN 'COYOTE' GAME

Weakness Exposed in Saturday's Contest Will Be Overcome in Preparation For Eastern Combats.

Notre Dame may consider herself fortunate in having played the strong South Dakota eleven so early in the season, officials stated yesterday. Saturday's fierce battle called forth all the grit, endurance and resourcefulness of the gold and blue men and their ability to come from behind and crush their heavy opponents showed that they will have to be reckoned with when critics come to pick team and individual champions. The "Coyote" contest also proved that Coach Harper has a big task before him to get his line into shape in time to meet the heavy Army and Penn State teams next month.

Work will be begun immediately in preparation for the big eastern games and every weakness that appeared in Saturday's game will be eradicated wherever possible. Special attention will be given to interference, for the gold and blue lost several chances to gain Saturday because of its lack.

Dorais, by his performance in the "Coyote" game gave evidence of making all-western quarterback this year. In the contest Saturday, Dorais was the only man to hold his head after the accident that dented Notre Dame's Jones' services and it was the little general's confidence that put the gold and blue men on their feet.

Gushurst is considered the season's find at right end. The former half-back played havoc with the Dakota backs and the "Coyotes" could not gain around his end. "Gus" is heavy and fast and frequently he spilled the whole Dakota interference and held the man with the ball for no gain. On the offense Gushurst was a big factor in Notre Dame's scoring. Harper will continue to work "Gus" at right end.

No Serious Injuries.

None of the Notre Dame warriors was seriously crippled in the Dakota tilt and all will be out for practice today or tomorrow. It was a blow on the jaw that knocked Jones out. Eichenlaub received two hard knocks but these will not prevent him from resuming practice at once. Eichenlaub was given a black eye in the second half and in the fourth quarter was forced out of the fray because of a kick in the back of the head. South Dakota put up as game a battle as has been seen on Carter field in some time and gave the gold and blue men some idea of what they will buck up against in the east. Assistant coach Edwards will give special attention to his linemen this week and new plays will be developed for the Army game on Nov. 1. Daily blackboard drills will be continued.

GOSHEN GREYS WIN SECOND FROM SOX

ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 20. — Inability of the Elkhart Blue Sox to hit the ball at critical periods resulted in the team's defeat Sunday in the second and last of what was to be a three-game series with Rogers' Goshen Greys. The score was 4 to 2. Goshen won last Sunday's game by the score of 5 to 2.

The crowd kept the attendance to below the 300 mark and this, combined with substitute players were also factors in the defeat of the Sox. Donahue and Dawson both loomed up in good shape in endeavoring to stave off the defeat but their teammates found it absolutely impossible to solve Method's curves.

NEW HAMMER RECORD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20. — A world's record for throwing the 12 pound hammer from a seven foot circle was made Sunday at Celtic park, Long Island, by Patrick Ryan of the Irish American Athletic club. Ryan's mark was 213 feet 9 inches. The old record, 207 feet 7 3/4 inches, was made by John Flanagan three years ago.

Jimmy Clabby is Clever But He's Exponent of Old School Boxing

BY W. W. NAUGHTON.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20. — It was all right to enthuse over the way Clabby handled Sailor Petroskey, but when anyone undertakes to call Jimmy a second Stanley Ketchel it is time to interpose an objection. Clabby is as clever as a Queensbury artist has wandered into San Francisco in years but bears as much resemblance to Ketchel as a fox terrier to a fighting bull pup. Clabby is cleverness itself, but it is the cleverness of the old school of boxing, whereas Ketchel was as a bundle of firecrackers in the matter of springing new tricks. Ketchel was always changing feet, and shoulders too, for that matter, and his opponent was always kept in doubt as to whether the next assault was to be a shift or a straight-away swing.

Clabby holds fast to the straight-away swings and uppercuts of 20 years ago and speeds them as quickly and as truly as any of the old masters. Ketchel was a one-punch man, as a rule, while it is doubtful if Clabby will ever gain distinction as a knocker-out. Ketchel was the picture of lightning strength, while this Jimmy Clabby is comparatively frail.

Reminds Jack Dempsey.
He is no Ketchel, but if I were asked to recall someone he resembled among the old-time ring heroes, I should be inclined to liken him to Jack Dempsey.

Among the San Francisco fight followers Clabby caused as much of a sensation as Mike Gibbons did once in New York. It was the lightning play of Clabby's straight left that put the crowd in the proper frame of mind to appreciate the things that were to follow. It was Jimmy's particularly nice judgment of distance when pulling away from Petroskey's thundering swings that caused the ringsters to regard him as a wizard of the boxing platform.

For my own part, after many years of watching this kind of a thing I can say that I never saw Clabby's superior as a defensive fighter. It is no trick, I suppose for a fast footed man to keep safely out of reach of a one-style rusher like Petroskey, but

BID FAREWELL TO GLOBE TROTTERS

Chicago Fans Speed White Sox and Giants With Enthusiasm — Will Play in United States Until Nov. 19.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19. — The world touring White Sox of the American league, champions of Chicago, and the New York Giants, winners of the National league pennant, were given an enthusiastic farewell Sunday despite the fact that the local club was defeated 3 to 1 in the second game of their long schedule. The day was crisp, more suitable for football, but close to 8,000 persons attended. Both clubs wore uniforms trimmed with the national colors, with the American flag worked on their sleeves.

Travel In Special Train.

The touring party will travel in a special train which left Sunday night for Springfield, Ill., where the teams play Monday. The special train will be their home from now until they board the steamer at Vancouver, B. C., for Japan, Nov. 19. The itinerary carries the party across this country southwest and up the Pacific coast to Vancouver from where they will start their journey to foreign lands, playing in Japan, China, Philippines, Australia, India, Egypt, Italy, France, England, Scotland and Ireland. They expect to arrive in New York March 6 of next year.

The game Sunday was close, with Russell and Demaree, a Chicago boy, opposing each other. The former pitched a great game, striking out ten of his opponents, but the Nationals managed to bunch hits in two of the innings. Demaree, although a little wild, pitched his best ball in the pinches.

CHICAGO ELEVEN OVERWHELMED BY HUEBNER ATTACK

Athletic Club No Match For Locals Who Win by Score of 59 to 0—Forward Passing Feature.

The East Chicago Athletic club football team proved to be easy for the Huebner team of this city at Springfield park Sunday afternoon. The locals broke up a score of 59 to 0, the game being featured by the brilliant forward passes of the Huebners and the stubborn resistance put up by the Windy City warriors. The Huebners outweighed their opponents. The Chicago boys were slow in starting in many of their plays, while the locals got off their passes quickly.

The most spectacular play of the game occurred in the first quarter, when Vargo, captain of the Huebners, intercepted a long forward pass, and dodged through a broken field for a run of 30 yards. From that point the Huebners, by means of heavy line plunges and brilliant forward passes, took the ball down the field for the first touchdown in a little less than four minutes. In the first quarter the locals took the Chicago men into camp right, running up a string of 33 points. In the following three periods the Chicago team put up greater resistance and kept the locals almost in their own territory.

Vargo and Bolinski were the bright and particular stars of the contest, while Kowatch at quarter and Gruber at end were good for gains at any time. McShane and Darrow were the mainstays of the Chicago eleven. Line ups and summary:

ELKHART MAROONS ARE DEFEATED BY MUESSELS

A touchdown and a kicked goal in the third quarter gave the Muesseles a seven to nothing victory over the Elkhart Maroons on Baker field Sunday afternoon. The two teams were evenly matched, both averaging around 140 pounds.

A Skowronski was sent over for the touchdown. Steve Sobidalski then kicked goal. The Maroons threatened several times but could not cross the locals' line.

Next Sunday the Muesseles will play the Century club and on the following Sunday will meet the Budweisers. On Nov. 23 they will play at Elkhart. Nov. 9 and 16 are open dates. Teams wanting games should telephone B. M. Gadacz, 6586 Home phone.
